Letter to the Editor

Hi Les,
just got my copy of the Gawler Country Music newsletter, thank you for the quality and readability of our publication at your hands I always look forward to the articles and stories that the newsletter contains, I only regret not putting in enough time and effort to making a meaningful contribution -- I will try to make an effort soon.
At 67 young and not working full time, I thought that I could follow the country music scene but that hasn't happened.

With all the interests and things that take my fancy, time slips away and before I know it, my passion for country music and its artists have passed me by. Its time to MAKE time for the things that generate great pleasure -- now is the time to stop and "smell the roses", listen to the music or better still, take part in the very things that give the greatest pleasure. Once again Les, well done, cheers for now.

Bill Ordway

Country Hearts

Club member Jeff who occasionally attends our Monthly shows and Music Workshop is a man of many talents.

Some years ago he played saxophone in a Dixie Jazz band and he's now taken on the task of playing keyboards.

Jeff loves a challenge. Having recently met up with his new lady friend Denise they wasted no time in becoming engaged.

Denise admits to being a big fan of Country Music and has a special liking for Garth Brooks.

It goes to show that Country Music sure can bring a sparkle to ones eyes.
