

That Woz the Day That Woz!

Love 'em or Hate 'em

Some of us older musos just love to watch TV talent shows and to see our undiscovered young and not so young talented people gaining the success and recognition they deserve.

However, I agree, there is a limit to the repetition of some TV program formats...Cooking, Body Make-overs, House Make-overs, Recycled soaps etc.

Love 'em or Hate 'em...

Following success in the USA Keith Urban and Delta Goodrem are to star in the Australian version of the hottest TV singing contest in the world... The Voice.

We've already had a preview of the American version here.

The Country Music sensation Keith Urban has reportedly committed to joining Delta, as well as soul singer Seal and rocker Joel Madden, on the upcoming Channel 9 series.

The four will take on mentoring roles in the production that has won praise for showcasing vocal talent.

The series, which starred Christina Aguilera, Maroon 5's Adam Levine, Blake Shelton and Ce-Lo Green in the US, begins with the four judges choosing contestants during a blind audition process.

Each mentor's team then battles each other before the final showdown, where a public vote then crowns the most popular singer.

The US winners of the show have shot to fame and fortune.

Its broadcast on Go! set a multi-channel ratings record, launching in August to an audience peak of more than 500,000 viewers. Industry sources have confirmed negotiations with the Aussie line-up, but it is understood contracts are yet to be finalised.

The winner will be signed to a recording deal with Universal Music.

My First Time

I remember the first time I tried it,
I was only a lad of fifteen;
And though she was younger than I was,
She was more composed and serene.
I was eager, yet awkward and backward,
Uncertain of how to proceed;
But a feeling of joy soon possessed me,
The warmth of her hastened the deed.

It wa out in the barn,I remember,
The evening was scented with hay.
Her body moved gently towards me,
As my hands began softly to play.

At first I was wholly bewildered,
Then my cheek against her I laid,
Then her brown eyes were quick to relieve,
Of waiting and being afraid.

Much later my heart pounded gladly,
(It seemed hours since first I began);
My soul was alive with newborn pride,
Of a boy who has grown to a man.

Twenty years have passed since that evening,
But my memory recalls even now,
That first thrill of joy, I felt as a boy,
On the day I first milked a cow.
