"Few bands have 'chart success' written all over them like Jetty Road."
 Canterbury News, UK

"Jetty Road are not trying to be just another band, imitating something that's been done before. This is where their true individualism shines through in many wondrous colours."
 Laura Bethell, Maverick Magazine, UK.

"As good as anything that has come out of the US."
 Deb Minter, Capital News, AUSTRALIA

"Quite breathtaking in all honesty."
 Chris Jackson, International Americana Festival UK

Jetty Road have forged their own path and decided to go for it in a big way.

2009 saw the release of their new album, Life at a Million Miles - a new chapter in their remarkable journey.

This album has a distinct flavour about it – confident with no apologies.

"I stopped retreating to the backline, and I went out and I started playing the front line"

"I've always played my cards just how I wanted"

"This time I'm digging my feet down in the sand"

These lyrics capture the highs and lows of their sometimes 'crazy' life, along the amazing road they've travelled to where they are today.

Twin sisters Lee and Paula, along with Julian and Simon make up Jetty Road.
