No Sunday Newspaper?

This is dedicated to all of us who are seniors, to all of you who know seniors, and to all of you who will become seniors.

It pays to be able to laugh about it when you are!

"WHERE is my SUNDAY paper?!"

The irate customer calling the newspaper office loudly demanded to know where her Sunday edition was.

"Madam", said the newspaper employee, "today is Saturday. The Sunday paper is not delivered until tomorrow, on SUNDAY".

There was quite a long pause on the other end of the phone, followed by a ray of recognition as she was heard to mutter, "Well, that's why no one was at church today."

Just a Thought From Bill Northcott!

Our thoughts and best wishes are with Beryl and family.

Where is John Nutting?

Source: abc.net.au

John Nutting of Saturday Night Country Radio is expected to return from his hols sometime this month (February).

Felicity Urquart has hosted the show for almost 3 months in his absence, and it seems there are mixed reactions as to who is the most popular host of the show

"I sure hope Jonno is back soon, before Felicity totally alienates all the Australian Country Music fans, who listen to Saturday Night Country every week.

She plays so much American stuff that is available just about everywhere else, whereas Australian Country Music is nowhere near as prolific on Australian radio stations."

Bob

"... I do find Felicity's choice of music more interesting than John's. Whilst I recognise John's huge contribution to raising the profile of country music in Australia, I do find his choice of material a little limited. There is much more to country music than the stable of artists that John features. I was very sorry to see Richard Porteous' Sunday night Country Club program on Radio National fold; it provided a nice balance to John's program.

I don't want to turn this forum into a John Nutting knocking session, but suffice it to say there is heaps of country material that would probably be enjoyed by listeners that is not featured in John's format."

What do you think? Australian Country Music or American Style...or a good mix... Like a Box of Chocolates ...or a plate of Porridge with a Sprinkle of Sugar?
