Editors Note

Hi Folks

Well I'm sitting here typing the July Newsletter (it's Wednesday 4th June) ...and it's b...y cold.

Time to close the cooling vents! Yes I should have done that last week...

Sami our little girly doggy and Micky (our little boy doggy) are sitting close by wondering why Tina is not here as usual.

Well she's off gallivanting in Queensland ...yet again.

My music is playing... I pick up my guitar now and again and play a few songs...

I think I'll have a glass of port ... 'Yes that sounds a good idea Les... plus a few nibbles..... Well they didn't last long!

'What can I put in this month's Newsletter?'

You see... that's what happens when one is alone with no-one to talk to... One starts talking to ones-self... It's either that, or I'm going nuts... Yes some people would agree.

Have you ever wondered why... radio and television presenters who often work alone... they giggle and laugh? Yes... laughing is infectious... Ha Ha! (Nuts) See Nutto Johnno on Page 3.

Now on a sane note... Hows about more initiative within Gawler Country Music Club. What do you think we should do to involve our club members more directly with our Newsletter and our Club activities?

Would you like to offer your services? Our club has almost trebled in size over the past 3 years, and this means we need more assistance from Members. Have a word with Club President Keith Warren if you are interested in helping out.

C.U Soon Folks...when hopefully I'll be having a 'sane' day!

President's Report

June 2008

G'Day Members & Friends,

Our June show was another success, with 'Country Plus' playing a lot of good songs. We had a first-class crowd with our membership steadily growing each month.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the members who have renewed this year, and to our new members we welcome you all.

We have released the Slim Dusty Tickets for this year's Tribute Show and they are selling very quickly. Don't miss out; get in early for another great show.

Our AGM is approaching and nominations are open for election to our Club's committee. So why not nominate.

Our band for July is the very popular 'Heartland'.

Another good show happening. So come along and joint in the fun.

Until then...

Keep It Country...
