This page is now devoted to information provided by Committee and Club Members

Based on the increase in our club membership numbers, Country Music in South Australia is attracting more and more people into the many venues dotted around our state.

The range of Country Music awards and prizes on offer to developing artists is like a magnet; often attracting the very best of talent in Australia, and providing the opportunity for new artists to gain experience and to further advance their career.

Alongside the encouragement of our local Country Music Clubs, and CMSA's Champ of Champs etc, we have interstate, Tamworth's Toyota Star Maker and the CMAA Country Music Awards of Australia; each playing a significant role in developing and advancing Country Music throughout Australia.

Each year we have emerging new talent, and there are signs that a surge in the number and quality of talented hopefuls appearing on the Country Music scene is truly becoming a reality. The vision for many artists is to gain the opportunity to perform, record, tour and to climb the Country Music ladder to success. Let's provide all the support we can!

As Country Music enthusiasts, we each have a role to play in assisting the best of our South Australian talent to reach for the sky and achieve their goals.

Dot's Spot

A cowboy rode into Gawler town and stopped at a bar for a drink.

Unfortunately, the Gawler locals had a habit of picking on strangers, and when the cowboy finished his drink, he found his horse had been stolen.

He went back into the bar, flipped his gun into the air, caught it above his head without even looking and fired a shot into the ceiling.

"Which one of you uncultured morons stole my horse?" he bellowed, making the glasses on the bar shake.

No one answered.

The cowboy squinted around the room then, without looking, shot the tops off three bottles of whisky on the bar.

"Alright," he snarled. "I'm gonna have another beer, and if my horse ain't back outside by the time I'm finish, I'm gonna have to do what I done in Willaston."

The locals shifted uneasily in their seats, as the cowboy swivelled around suddenly.

"And let me tell you - I really don't want to do what I done in Willaston."

Chairs creaked restlessly. The cowboy sat at the bar again, and quickly downed another beer. The locals watched as he got up, paid the bill and walked outside - to find his horse back where he'd left it.

As he saddled-up and was about to ride out of town, the bartender came out of the bar. Unable to contain his curiosity, he approached the cowboy.

"Before you go; tell me - what happened in Willaston?"

The cowboy turned back, with a long face, said.....

"I had to walk all the way home to Munno Para."

Just a Thought From Bill Northcott!

An Adelaide teacher asked her class to write an essay on what they'd do if they had a million dollars.

Alec handed in a blank sheet of paper.

'Alec!' yelled the teacher, 'you've done nothing. Why?'

'Because if I had a million dollars, that's exactly what I would do! Wow! Smart Alec!'
